Admiral Bobby Ray Inman
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Admiral Inman:

In cooperation with our School of Communication, each year we sponsor a seminar for news people from newspapers, radio, and TV, dealing with government and with legal topics. One subject on the program for this year is the Freedom of Information Act, with some attention on the amendments offered by Senator John Chaffee. The seminar is set here on the campus on Thursday, September 16, 1982. In attendance will be about 50 reporters from over the state, and probably half a dozen from Georgia and Tennessee. As you know, the Freedom of Information matter is a warm topic for journalists.

I think it would be most appropriate to have the CIA's viewpoint presented to this audience, and thus my purpose in writing. I would be glad if you would be interested and available to visit with us on that date and talk for half an hour on the special needs of the CIA for secrecy. We will, of course, take care of your expenses and also make certain that you have an opportunity to sample Alabama hospitality. We could schedule your appearance around 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon, and thus it might be possible for you to leave Washington that morning.

I realize that this subject is not your major interest, but I judge that it is of much concern to you. I do hope that you will be in position to join us for this seminar.

Sincerely,
